

Heidi Kammer, left, performs country, pop and classic songs. Sheriff Ron Bateman joins the ladies of the troupe, above.

Special Guest Stars

On occasion, the ShowStoppers invite special guests to perform.

At the Arnold Senior Center performance, Anne Arundel County Sheriff Ron Bateman wowed the audience with his version of Aaron Neville's love song "Angola Bound." The uniformed Bateman brought a blush to female faces as he gazed into their eyes while he crooned away. Bateman says he loves karaoke and admits to singing when on patrol.

Humans aren't the only ShowStoppers. Sheba, a mixed shepherd rescued from Hurricane Katrina, accompanies Butch Boswell while he sings and plays guitar.