Robbery nearby locks down school

GLEN BURNIE — Glen Burnie High School was briefly locked down yesterday morning after a masked man with a gun robbed a convenience store nearby, county police said.

At 10 a.m. officers were called to High's Convenience Store at 7602 Baltimore Annapolis Blvd. after a man with a black handgun walked in and demanded money.

He took money, then ran south on Baltimore Annapolis Boulevard toward Chester Circle, police said.

Police were unable to find the suspect. School officials made the decision to lock down Glen Burnie High School at 7550 Baltimore Annapolis Blvd. for 45 minutes while police searched.

Police said the robber is white, about 20 years old, 6 feet 4 inches tall, with a slim build. He ~~was~~ wearing a white scarf across his face, a red hooded sweatshirt, and blue jeans.
