Warrant sweep ends in arrests of 31 people *

Sheriff's deputies arrested 31 people on outstanding warrants Monday as part of a "warrant sweep" of western and northern parts of the county, the sheriff's office said.

Deputies attempted to serve 150 warrants, most of which were for failure to appear in court.

Because the Anne Arundel Circuit Courthouse was closed in observance of Columbus Day, sheriffs normally assigned to the courthouse were free to serve warrants, minimizing overtime hours for the sweep, the sheriff's office said.
