*Sheriff/Chief DeputyPress Release“Crises Over – We Have Coffee Again”

Annapolis, MD. (October 1, 2009) – It all started when Anne Arundel County Sheriff Ron Bateman arrived at work one morning last week and there was no coffee, this cannot happen! When told that the coffee pot had died, the sheriff knew we had a problem because there was no money to buy a new pot due to budget cuts.

Following the lead of our government, Sheriff Bateman used the stimulus idea and contacted former Senator Mike Wagner, the owner of “H & M Wagner Coffee Service”, and asked him if he could trade his “old clunker” pot in for a new coffee pot, instead of cash. When told by the Sheriff’s Administrative Staff that the Sheriff would be a much happier person with his morning coffee, Mr. Wagner agreed and donated a new coffee pot to the Sheriff’s Office. Thank you Mike and George Wagner!!!
