News Release

Why it is important to remember where your ride parked...

Annapolis, MD [November 18th, 2009] – On the morning of Tuesday, November 17th, 2009, Mr. Danny Dwight Lindsay attended a hearing at the Circuit Courthouse. When Mr. Lindsay learned that he was wanted, he fled from the courtroom, exited the front of the Circuit Courthouse, and continued along South Street.

Much to his regret, Mr. Lindsay failed to realize that he had run a block and a half past his associates, who were waiting for him in their vehicle. Deputy Doug Schwaab, Deputy Rich Chesler, Sergeant Ted Vanorsdale, and Captain Steve LaPlanche were fast on his heels. Within two minutes, Mr. Lindsay was caught and then escorted back into the Circuit Courthouse.

Danny Dwight Lindsay of Baltimore City was wanted for Failing to Appear on drug charges. Sheriff Ron Bateman said, “Remember – you can run, but you can’t hide from my deputies.”
