

Drugs, gun seized in Glen Burnie drug bust

By Saliqa Khan

Kenny Carlos Truxon Jr.

Anne Arundel County Police Department

GLEN BURNIE, Md. —A 23-year-old man is facing gun and drug charges after a bust in Glen Burnie, police said.

Download the WBAL app

Anne Arundel County Sheriff's Office deputies were trying to find a wanted person at 7646 Spencer Road.

While checking the home, police found the man, identified as Kenny Carlos Truxon Jr., in the basement. Authorities also found a large quantity of drugs and a pistol there.

Sheriff's deputies secured the house and contacted Northern District Tactical Narcotics Team and Tactical Patrol Unit. The suspect was transported to Northern District and detectives obtained a search warrant for the house.

During a search, detectives seized 11 baggies of marijuana (320 grams), one baggie of crack cocaine (0.9 gram), 12 baggies of crack (3.5 grams), 1 baggie of heroin (1.2 grams), six Xanax pills, three scales, $1,017 in cash and a loaded Smith & Wesson pistol.

Truxon was arrested and faces several gun and drug charges, police said.

Anne Arundel County Police Department